

Course details:-

Introduction to Coaching and mentoring half day session

Course Outlines:

Have you got the right values and beliefs systems to support others?

Are you at that stage in your management career where you can advise and help others who are aspiring to new heights or need guidance in their careers?

Every organisation needs some form of career development programme to produce a succession of motivated, upward moving employees.

Mentoring is the process of preparing for future change. It is often referred to as a journey of prompted discovery. An effective mentor will be looking at longer term career development and helping to improve leadership development and the retention of key people.

This course is fun, interactive and informative and is a taster session into the role of the coach/mentor. The next natural stage of progression is to join our ILM Level 7 Certificate for professional executive coaches and leadership mentors starting on the 9th September 2010

Any persons wishing to sign up for the Certificate will receive a £50.00 discount
