

Course details:-

The ILM Level 7 Executive Management Award (Masters Level)

Course Outlines:

The course commences on October 14th 2010. It will be a series of 6 days of training input, guided learning hours (GLH) on ILM units (running over several weeks till 2011).

These units will require some high level work submission of Work Based Assignments and Reflective Reviews. This would then take you to the Award level.

If you want to go on to the Certificate and then the Diploma level, then more attendance and ILM Units, some training and further hours of work would need to be carried out by yourself

ILM Level 7 Award in Executive Management aims to give practising or potential senior managers the critical evaluative skills for their formal development in this role. The qualification does this by developing senior management skills and assisting participants in gaining the knowledge required at this level.

-  M7.01 Making informed decisions
