ILM Level 5 In Management

Peace & Tranquility....

What a great place to 'learn', away from the hustle and bustle of city life.

Just an hour's train journey from London

And central to many other locations, our courses are held in Beautiful Loddington on the ARET Game Conservancy rural estate just off the A47 at East Norton, Leicestershire, it is very customer friendly, exponential in its approach and accommodates candidates' needs & requirements that are reflected by their growth factors in the workplace; great for people who are on succession planning routes or want to be stretched in their own management capability growth and be recognised as competency qualified.

ILM Level 5 in Management (Drop-in Sessions)

We run the ILM Level 5 on a Friday every two weeks, there are many units that you may feel is particularly relevant to you and your company and so our 'drop-in' sessions allow you to pick the areas that you want to study and you can either come for just one session, or pick several units and go on to complete either the Level 5 Award, Certificate or Diploma in Management.

In control

This flexible approach allows you to be in control of what you want to learn and develop.

There are over 32 subject areas covered which include: -

Understanding the management role, Leading innovation and change, Managing stress and conflict in the workplace, Developing the manager as a critical thinker, Managing improvement, Making a financial case, Communication in management, Managing efficiency and effectiveness.

The Award in Management (45 guided learning hours)

is a concise qualification aimed at developing basic middle management skills and knowledge. The mandatory unit, 'Understanding the management role', examines organisational structure and function, the roles and responsibilities of middle managers and the effect of communication and interpersonal skills on managerial performance.

The Certificate in Management (150 guided learning hours)

builds and broadens on the areas covered in the Award. Here, 'managing improvement' is explored, both in terms of organisational and personal improvement. 'Developing the reflective manager' concentrates on the analysis of personal strengths and weakness and how to work through problems using creative techniques. The crucial skill of 'making a financial case' is also explored.

The Diploma in Management (216 guided learning hours)

develops a comprehensive range of basic middle management skills, assisting participants in gaining the knowledge required at this level. All participants are able to choose from a range of optional units to build their qualification; this high level of flexibility allows individuals or their employers to custom build a qualification that focuses on the key areas most relevant to their role, industry or organisation.

ILM Level 5 in Management

What is it?

The Level 5 in Management is a degree level study of the behavioural sciences, tools and techniques behind middle to senior management successful application in the workplace.

Who is it for?

These are for the hierarchal layer of managers (experienced or aspirational) who are responsible for solving company wide problems, making decisions that have wider impact implications and steering their organisations to successful outcomes or who are on a succession plan.

Why is this different?

This is the only route available in the UK that allows flexibility of choice with the current level 5 degree management education; attendance is flexible and attendance and successful submission of works denotes the qualification gained. Do as little or as much as is required!

How is it delivered?

The ILM level 5 is an on-going 12 months delivery programme. Every two weeks, normally on a Friday, an expert trainer is available to deliver one of the 32 units available within the level 5 suite of options.

So candidates can come to the units they want to, and depending on how much they attend, & how much work they successfully submit, determines the level of their degree level 5 education and qualifications

Options?

Attend only

Achieve 1 unit

Go on to the Award degree stage

keep going till the Certificate degree stage

Complete the full Diploma degree Certificate

(attend as required over the 12 months)

Costs?

Pay as you go! Pay as you want!

From as little as £95.00 per day Ex. Vat

No big outlays required; you can pay for one unit at a time, or whole commitments; entirely up to you and be user friendly with your budget position.

What they say about us

Bart Murphy from M P Moran and Son says:-

“thank you for the training you have expertly provided Moran’s with; I see it every day in changed perceptions, co-operative working relationships and motivated staffs. We will definitely use your services again and I am writing it into the business plan budget!”

Natalia Bibyayeva, Position: Supervisor
Karachaganak Petroleum Operating (KPO) says:-

“I would like to express my gratitude to my ILM IMQ Diploma trainers: Rachel, Steve, John and the main important, without whom this incredible study year would not happen, - Mary Brooks, for the professional presentation of the training materials and for the obtained knowledge, which they provided to us in the fascinating and interesting manner and which I hope to apply in practice, as well as for the knowledge, which helped us to write this project paper.

I thank them for their patience and attention; they paid to each of us, for their professionalism.

I thank them for simply being the great people they are. Meeting these unusual and clever people provided me with the great stimulus for my own improvement and further development in the field of being a manager and along with the gained knowledge, instilled me with the confidence in my own forces.

They have provided me with the invaluable psychological support and helped me to grow personally and professionally.”
